"Intervention" Observes Welfare Work Here

WASHINGTON (A) - President Eisenhower said today the United States would oppose - probably through the United Nations-any intervention in Egypt by Soviet or Chinese Communist volunteers.

The President left up in the air just what form such opposition might take.

He told a news conference, his first since re-election, that the nature of such opposition would depend upon the specific circumstances of any intervention.

BIG QUESTIONS and Little Answers

WOULD IT BE SHREWD TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PRESENT

Now, while these prices are so low, you can pick up a good low priced car for a second family car. No more quibbling about who has the car tonight, and Mother always has a car available for marketing, errands, and taking the children to school.
